

IN THE SUPREME COURT/COURT OF APPEALS OF NEBRASKA

Appellee/Appellant, Case No. _____

v.

STIPULATION

Appellee/Appellant,

Comes now the parties and stipulate that appellant's (or appellee's) brief day may be extended from _____, 20____ to _____, 20____.

The parties suggest the following cause exists for one or more reasons:

___ This is an advanced civil or criminal case (Exceptional cause):

___ The intervention of something beyond the control of the requestor;
and/or ___ unexpected illness, incapacity, or unforeseeable absence of the person preparing the brief.

___ This is a non-advanced civil case (Good cause):

___ The unavailability of required appellate records through no fault of the requestor;

___ The case involves complex and unusual facts or legal issues requiring additional research and preparation time;

___ There has been a recent change in appellate counsel and/or appointment or hiring of new counsel who is unfamiliar with the appeal;

___ Conflicts with the schedule of another court: _____

___ Other good cause not listed above:

The parties stipulate and agree the following facts support the above listed cause:

/s/

Attorney or Non-Attorney Name (Bar Number)

Firm Name

Street Address/P.O. Box Number

City/State/ZIP Code

Telephone

Email Address

/s/

Attorney or Non-Attorney Name (Bar Number)

Firm Name

Street Address/P.O. Box Number

City/State/ZIP Code

Telephone

Email Address

(NOTE: Neither the stipulation of the parties nor mere conclusory statements such as “the press of other business” constitutes good cause. See Neb. Ct. R. App. P. § 2-106\(E\)\(2\).)

APPENDIX 2

Appendix 2 amended September 24, 2014, effective January 1, 2015;
amended September 15, 2021, effective January 1, 2022.

This form is neither approved nor disapproved by any court or judicial tribunal. Use of this form provides no immunity from error.